RESURRECTION SUNDAY 2020

Christ is Risen!

'He is Risen Indeed!'

Have a blessed day within the Communion of the Saints. Many of us have family locally and overseas we'd love to be with today. Now we have to use our imagination and the wonders of modern science.

Biffy and I tells our little men in Kuala Lumpur bedtime stories in real time on her mobile 'phone.

I trust you have all had a valuable virtual Lent so you can snack on those chocolate eggs with a clear conscience this morning.

Coming up: our next big celebration is the Ascension and then Pentecost.

May the risen Lord inspire and renew you in this time of crisis.
